THREE CHEERS

A big shout out to the Marketing and Graduate Enrollment team for volunteering with South Bend Venues, Parks & Arts on Friday. The MGE team put in a full day of service at Leeper Park, helping to revitalize an area near the Studebaker Fountain by removing old brush, pulling weeds, re-mulching, etc. Some members of the team spent the time picking up trash. Special thanks to Chris Grenert for organizing the effort. Way to Grow the Good in Business (literally)!

WE WANT TO HEAR FROM YOU!

Reminder! Please take the Mendoza Exchange newsletter readership survey by May 30. Five names will be drawn at random to receive a $20 certificate to be used toward the purchase of Mendoza apparel in the Faculty Support Office.

FACULTY ANNOUNCEMENTS

BGS Faculty Advisor Opportunity

The College is seeking a faculty member (teaching or tenured) to take over as the advisor to our Beta Gamma Sigma chapter. BGS, the business school honor society, honors students who qualify for membership based on their superior academic performance by recognizing them at the spring induction banquet, the chapter website and the commencement booklet. The faculty advisor supports the chapter through activities including issuing invitations to qualifying students, arranging for the induction banquet, making updates to the website, coordinating recognitions during commencement and working with the national chapter. Contact Ken Kelley, senior director for Faculty and Research, if interested.

A sincere thank you to Ram Ramanan, who has served as BGS advisor for 30 years! Ram has graciously offered to work with the new advisor to ensure a smooth transition.

KUDOS

Father Oliver Williams delivered a recent Hesburgh Lecture in Atlanta, Growing the Good in Business, where he spoke about his course on Spirituality and Business. Shown in the photo along with Father Ollie is one of his former students and new Mendoza graduate Jerome Bettis.
